

THE BOATHOUSE AT FRONT STREET VILLAGE

beaufort, nc

chef kenneth collins

Kenny is our fabulous chef at The Boathouse at Front Street Village. He is a Carteret County native and grew up learning to cook by both of his grandmothers. He began his culinary career working under chef Joe Loughry and has perfected his skills while working for great restaurants across the county. He has been cooking since the ripe age of 15. He enjoys cooking and working with his hands. In his spare, time he coaches youth league football and recreation basketball. Kenny has three children, Dontarius, Malik, and Tyshauna Collins and three step-children, Sheldon, Jaylon and Donovan. He shares his life with his supportive girlfriend, Trisha.

about the boathouse at front street village

A spectacular waterfront location in historic Beaufort, North Carolina. No other venue offers guests panoramic views of Shackleford Banks, a glimpse of Carrot Island ponies & amazing sunset views over Taylor Creek.
